THE WAYNE BARLOWE GALLERY

SEAWRACK

When it comes to conceptualizing exotic alien species and the strange ecological systems that spawned them, Wayne Barlowe is an artist simply without peer. His boundless creativity and careful technique synthesize to provide us with the realistic imagery a Charles Darwin or James Audubon might have brought to an interplanetary expedition. In this case, it is Barlowe's rich imagination that serves as his Beagle, transporting him to locales and climes where his strange bestiary reigns over some never before seen landscape or watery biotrope. His adeptness at depicting plausible-looking aliens is exhibited particularly well by his painting titled Elytracephalid. This Latin appellation translates into wing-flap head. It is so often the subtle details of enigmatic organic structures that make us believe what Barlowe paints.

Wayne Barlowe's fascination with the science of life, and the wonder of drawing and painting it developed at an early age in his parent's home studio. Here biological specimens shared shelf space with nature books and art books alike over tables laden with the natural history illustration of his parents. Here he also learned the discipline required to successfully rose the universe of possibilities and work his way back line by line and stroke by stroke over as much paper and canvas as the ideas might require... often under deadline pressure, as creative journeys require financial backing, as well.

WILDSEED

BLACK EASTER

Evidenced particularly in his remarkable drawings, Barlowe's art has a classic sensibility to it while at the same time conveying a scientifically sound logic to even his most bizzarre creations. As the Christian Science Monitor cited: "Wayne Barlowe creates entire planets, down to the tiniest details, and then imagines what their inhabitants would look like. His success is extraordinary." And as noted sf and science author Frederik Pohl commented: "Incredible, remarkable, awesome, it's easy to run out of superlatives when one tries to describe the creatures Barlowe paints."

Dinosaurs are also a passion of Barlowe's and his renderings of them rival the very best of the world's top artists in that field. His near obsessive attention to detail and the latest paleontological research shows clearly in his meticulous renderings. Not limiting himself to merely two dimensions, the artist has recently completed a limited sculpture edition of a Tanolytrannus skull.

APPROACHING STORM

Barlowe is currently working on an ecosystem more fantastic than the Jurassic-Hell! Several of his images for this mysterious and dark series of works will appear in his new book from Morpheus.

THYPE 1981

Barlowe is having a screen saver released by Morpheus and looks forward to working in CD-ROM and film in the near future. With his keen talent and imagination, any such project should be something well worth waiting for. In fact, his own fan following is not insignificant. His first book, BARLOWE'S GUIDE TO EXTRATERRESTRIALS has sold over a quarter of a million copies since its release and has been followed with such successful titles as EXPEDITION and AN ALPHABET OF DINOSAURS. Barlowe's most recent book has been published by Morpheus International. THE ALIEN LIFE OF WAYNE BARLOWE features the very best of his amazing canon of work, reproduced in large full color format and replete with the artist's own text detailing his approach to painting and drawing.

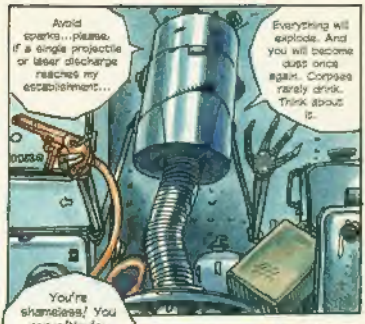
Burton & Cyb: The Conquest of the West

On this map, there are wells of drinking water a little bit to the south.
Are you sure? My automatic water detector indicates the north.
Pardon me, Burton, but what you've got there is not a detector... it's an electric frying pan.
What are you saying?
Fourteen galactic systems have a price on our heads for the gravest of crimes, including diverse thefts, swindles, and lack of respect for the established order... they don't know how to live.
Damned guides, if we don't find something to drink soon...
We'll die in this lousy desert...
And so, we decided to take to take refuge on a frontier planet, where we served as guides to a caravan of thirsty colonists who wanted to cross the desert...
It was our first honest work, we felt responsible for the lives of the colonists who trusted us, and because they paid us in advance.

I don't want to be unpleasant, but the people in...
...the caravan will find up drinking your blood if you don't find a well soon.
That won't be necessary. Burton and Cyto are exemplary guides...
...have never failed in their duty. Look at the summit of that hill.
A WATER... WELL!
A DRINK!!
WATER!!
WE'RE SAVED!!
I'LL HAVE TO SEE IT TO BELIEVE IT!
True children...
Frankly, a drink of water is a necessity which escapes me... for me what suffices is...
...a drop of oil from time to time...
You're right, humans have strange needs.
-2

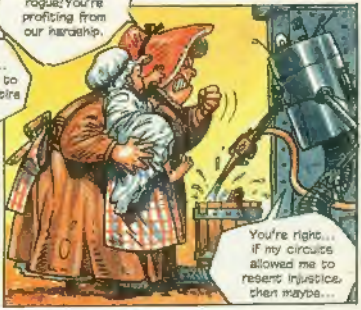
IT'S DRY!
DRY... THAT CAN'T BE!
THE GUIDES... LET'S DRINK THEIR BLOOD!
LYNCH THEM! HANG THEM!
Just a second... the contract simply stipulates that we must find wells, and we've done that.
...if they're dry, we're not responsible...
MEEE

That's robbery...let's wreck this lousy robot and steal its water.
I'm entirely of your opinion... let's get it, old man.

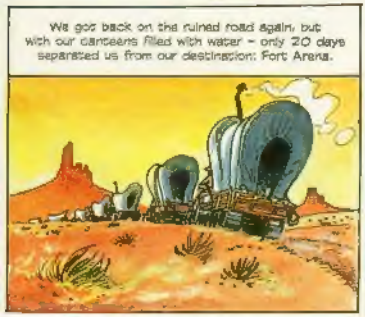


Avoid sparks...please. If a single projectile or laser discharge reaches my establishment...
Everything will explode. And you will become dust once again. Corpses rarely drink. Think about it.

I think we've got to pay. I'll take this opportunity to buy a liter of multigrade oil.
This is disgusting... this is going to eat up my entire budget.



You're shameless! You rogue! You're profiting from our hardship.
You're right... if my circuits allowed me to resent injustice, then maybe...



We got back on the ruined road again, but with our canteens filled with water - only 20 days separated us from our destination: Fort Arena.

We've got to get lucky...if the Arenas tribe appears, they will try to set fire to the wagon train.
I hope they don't show up 'cause I would have a hard time containing the fury of my troops.

What are you saying? I really want my atomic rifle to rust, unless sometime during this trip
We run across a single one of those desert savages.
AUUUUUU
AUUUUUU
AUUUUUU
AUUUUUU
AUUUUUU
THE ARENAS! MAKE A CIRCLE AROUND THE WAGON!
AYC
AYC
Everyone that's armed. get out your guns!
Let me go. you let me at them!

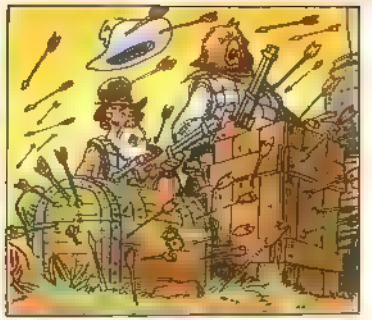
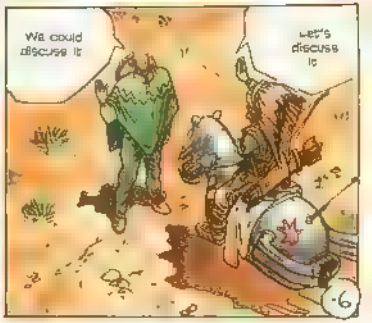
What are we afraid of? We have them outnumbered and we have superior firepower
Let's blow away these primitives We shouldn't be afraid of their bows
Well said, Billy Bud.



Well, yes sometimes it's better to negotiate it's up to you
Sorry that's not in my contract don't have to make truces with these savages

It's our duty, Cyb these people have put their trust in us We can't let them down
I volunteer
How courageous!

O K Burton I'll make sure to mention the place you got stupid on your tombstone



We could discuss it
Let's discuss it
-6

What did they say?
Cool. think we can avoid the carnage.
What are their conditions?

Their conditions are tough. half the animals. plus twenty solar credits d rather die. or even strangle myself. better yet die of starvation.

And that's not all. in crossing their lands we have offended their gods and so they demand that we sacrifice two of our party
Who will decide who the victims will be?

That seems right to me. Let's show them whose business this is.
Let the second victim be the bit of metal.
Who got us into this shit. It's him who must pay

You're garbage...You're a shitty guide!
No! I'm too young to die. I'm still guaranteed for a hundred years!

They ruined us. It was the least we could do to leave them in the situation they had themselves in
All the same, it seems a bit of a pair to think of them so much as martyrs
Fuck, the chief's going to start torturing us
Me first. I'm starting to get stiff and I can't feel my arms anymore
Patience, wait until the wagon train gets a bit further away
We didn't do bad business. We're left with ten thousand solar credits after all is said and done
What's the next wagon train?
He said in the next two moons.
But just a second. I'd like to work out something important
Are you interested in giving me back the money I gave you for that multigrade oil?
Impossible, it's not written in your contract
Stupid robot, you want me to pull out your plug, don't you?

DEAR ENEMY

Won't you be done with your "falcon" soon!? only have a few secondary circuits to connect. Don't be so nervous!
look, Mr. I'm cool. I'm just a bit scared of messing up the connecting wires!
This thing could give is life or death. As for you, just have to deal with it.
you're overthinking, now can you be so serious?<
Kid, you're saying big games like right moving drive your tail and let you out wherever you want. no problem
CAM
After that it's all up to you

Mr. President, the fleet is coming in the welcoming committee is in place.

Bff!
He's dying! No needs to finish him off! He won't last much longer!
Would you like to make a speech, Mr President?
Bzzz Bzzz
Yes!
He's going to make an announcement

Welcome, my favorite opponent
Pardon the somewhat rude reception. But you must understand my position
Shhh... Know what must be done now. You shouldn't worry about that because you will soon die... but... Know so often... Listen carefully
Your destruction will not be in vain... It will serve a noble cause in the peoples of the galaxy. So that they may know my power... It will serve a discourage all others like yourself who take reckless and disorganized actions
Why struggle so much, a guerrilla attack when you have lost in advance against an unjust and corrupt power. And I AM just and corrupt. And assume it, because you, like your parents have been forced and will be known throughout the universe
Don't torment yourself... It is who used your naivete and enthusiasm... you must not regret a thing
After all, you would have loved to spit in my face with all your courage created by man as a Rebel Child... You who have preached your saying, SHOUT freedom! How boring! Know you too will. You think you're a damn president of the liberation of peoples! It's sad to die!
Damn to nope that all... have done for you will make you a little less protective... you died for an idea... yes... but what idea?
PASSWORD: FREEDOM

Goodbye, my dear enemy! And thanks for all you've done, so brilliantly. YOUR LIFE for MY IDEAS and MY POWER, !! My sincere thanks.
...MONSIEUR LE PRÉSIDENT!!!
...MONSIEUR...
Mr. President! Nothing was recorded!!! A completely unforeseen event occurred. When he fell, the strap broke the antenna of the video recorder. It's all wasted.
I'm sorry

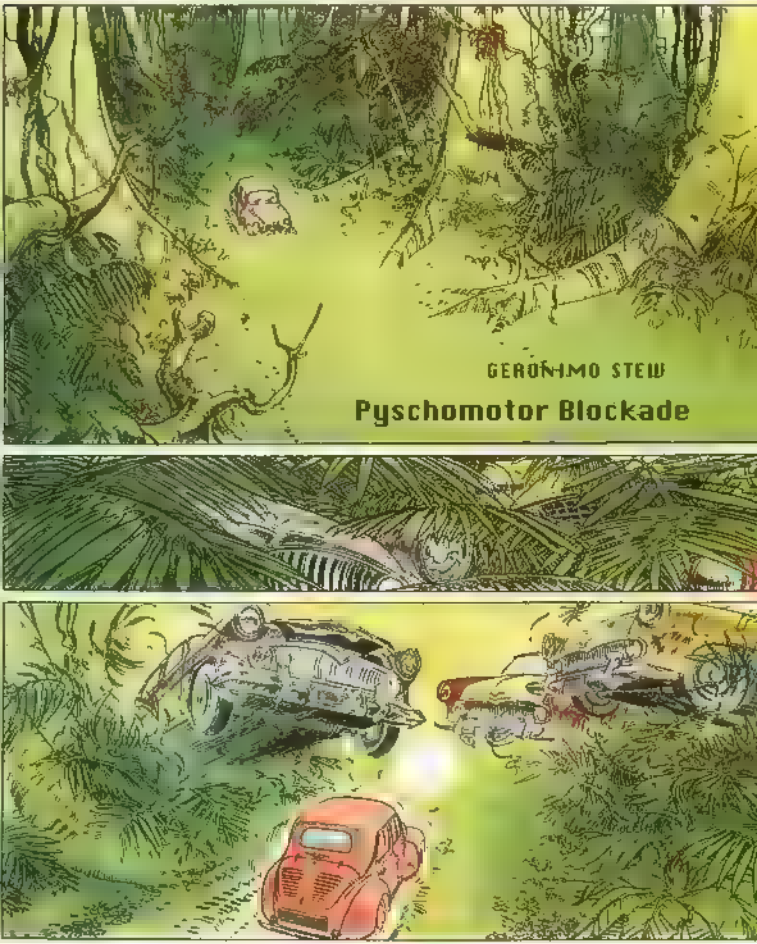
IT WAS A QUIET AFTERNOON. GERONIMO STEW (ALSO CALLED "THE BENGAL TIGER" BY HIS WIFE) WAS RETURNING FROM A DRIVE 'N H S FOUR-HORSE MOBILE



What's up, boy? Frolicking?
Leave me alone. Go away please
Look how the little lad shakes with that motor in his back.
Your jaw or your life!
I'd like to know what's going on here?
Aren't you ashamed to be picking on a little car like mine with all the cylinders you have?
The first one who lays as much as one finger on my car ... I'll take out their radiator
Look at this loser! Who made you traffic monitor!
Forget it, Uncle. Your pimple of a car won't protect you from us
We'll rattle his valves a bit, that's all
Then you can take a look at my chassis

...at's get behind him.
LEAVE US ALONE!
C'mon man, don't be so uptight
PINPON
SHIT! THE POLICE!
PINPON
PINPON
Are you the one behind all this?
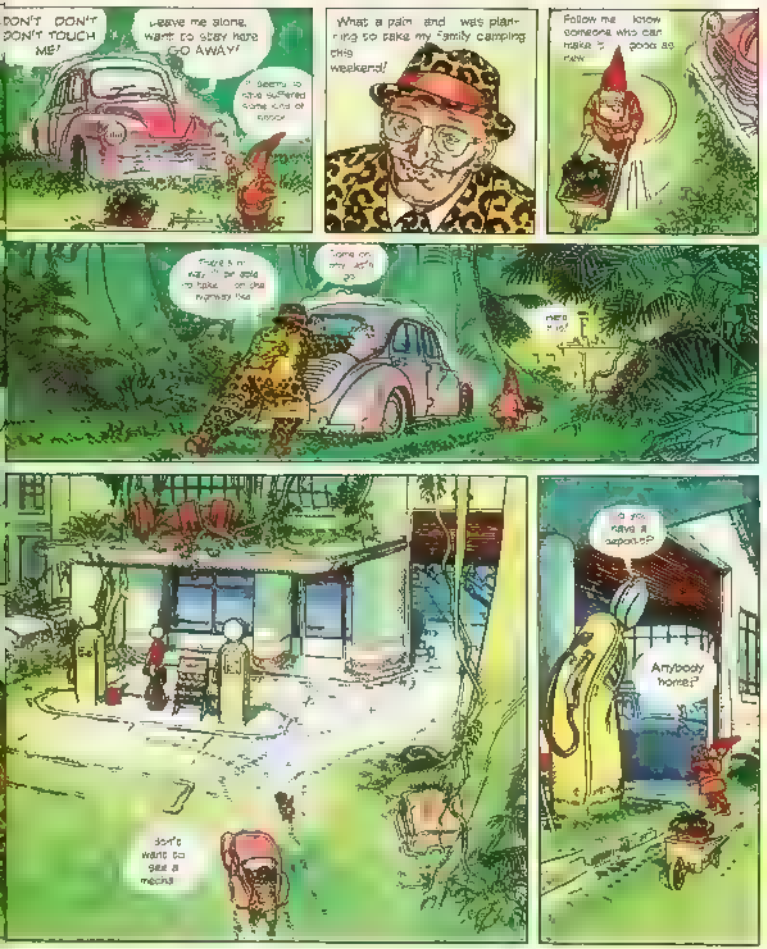
...ere can do all kinds of imitations with my mouth. Vrrrroom, is the sound of a motor Crrrrrrrz, sh-rrrrring, and everything. It's my only defense
Thanks. Thanks for saving me from such a sticky situation.
It was nothing. My pleasure
What's up with your car? It doesn't look too good.



DON'T DON'T DON'T TOUCH ME!
Leave me alone, want to stay here GO AWAY!
It seems to have suffered some kind of injury
What a pain and was planning to take my family camping this weekend!
Follow me I know someone who can make it good as new Come on, my son is so
There's no way he could be like on the highway like Here it is!
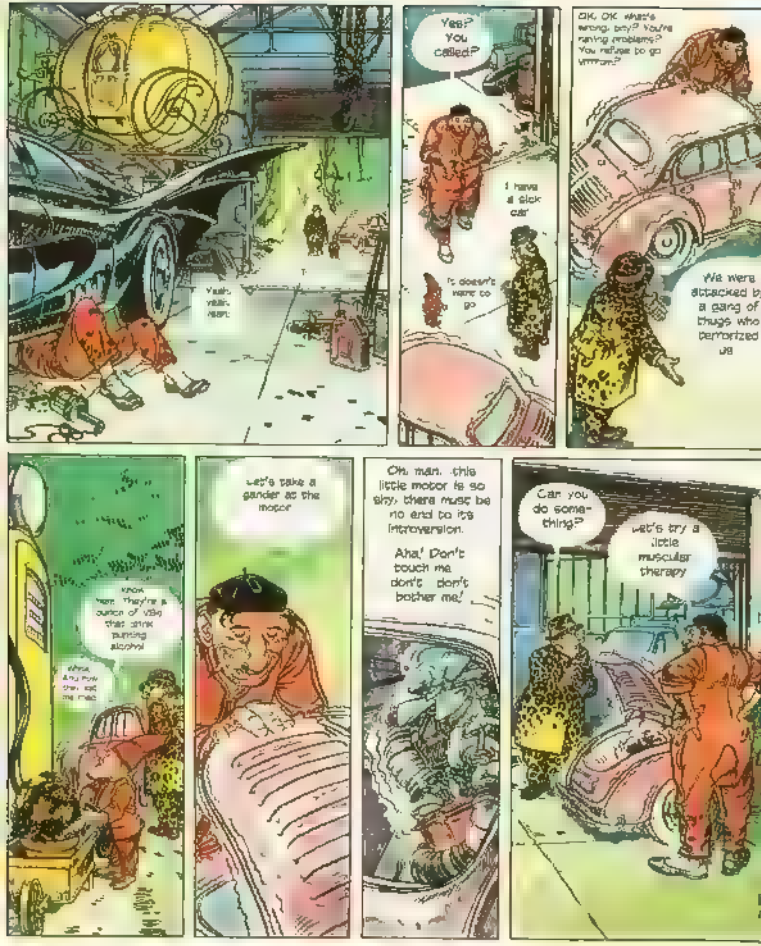
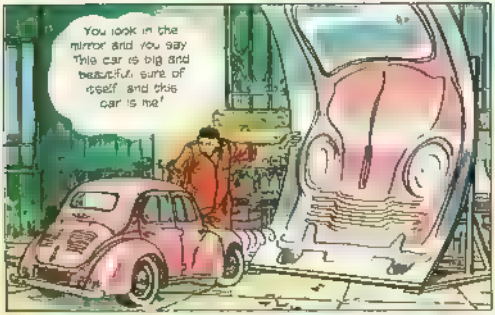
Is you have a carpenter?
Anybody home?
don't want to see a mechanic

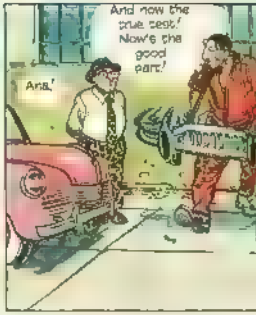


Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yes? You called?
I have a sick car
It doesn't want to go
OK, OK. What's wrong, sir? You're having problems? You refuse to go uphill?
We were attacked by a gang of thugs who terrorized us
Whoa here. They're a source of vital, that stink burning alcohol
Whoa. And now they eat me raw
Let's take a gander at the motor
Oh, man. This little motor is so shy, there must be no end to its introversion.
Aha! Don't touch me don't don't bother me!
Can you do something?
Let's try a little muscular therapy

This motor has suffered a severe trauma! Do you know its last owner?
No, sorcerer
It wouldn't surprise me if he was a rustic motor killer
Let's try to massage its mechanical organs to bring out all its archaic fears.
Ah!
It's full of tensions. Traumas brought about by the point of the snowel
Aha! Look! Touching upon its distresses has brought out its affective psychomotor blockages!
Let's do some voodoo! I've learned an effigy car make as adjustments
That's much better. It's running.
VRRR VRRR
VROOM
Should I scrub hard?
Yes, like that. Your car is suffering from a bad self image. We should start by giving it a good soap job before tuning it up.
You're calm, your motor is strong, your gears are turning, you feel relaxed, you like yourself, you have no fear and you're not afraid of anything.



You look in the mirror and you say 'this car is big and beautiful, sure of itself and this car is me'



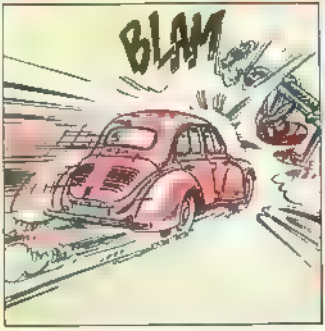
And now the true test! Now's the good part!
Aha!

ALL RIGHT BOY NO MORE FOOLING AROUND!

Do me a favor and attack me, go after me stop being such a pussy!

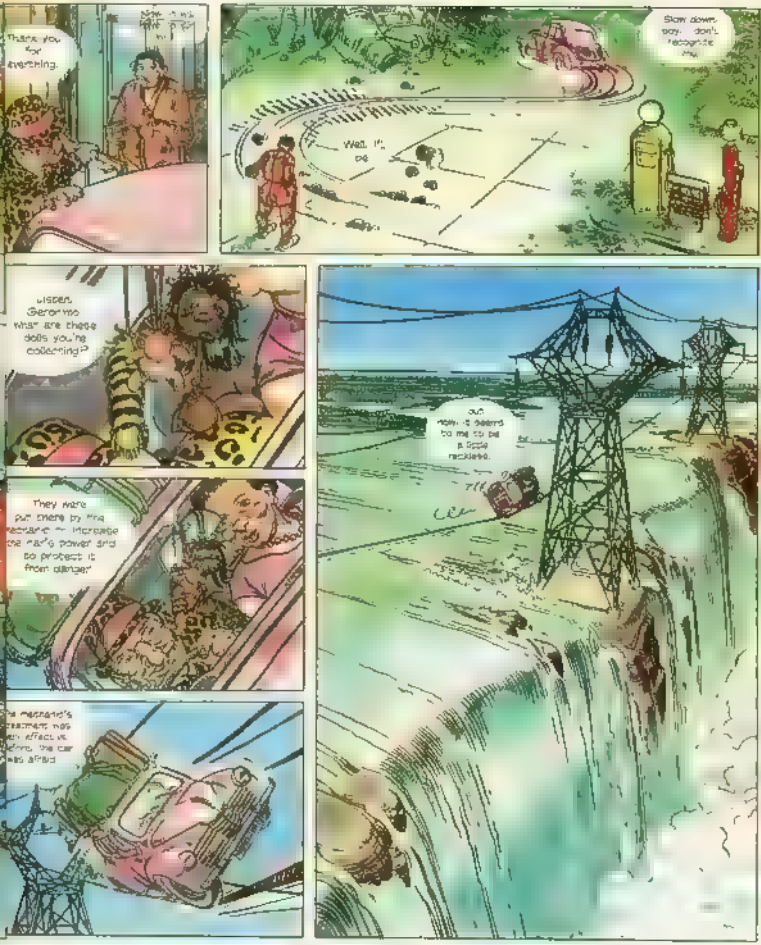
But, but why? You didn't do anything to me!
Don't start with shit, you've gotten in touch with yourself, you know who you are now. Be proud!

GIVE IT SOME GAS UNLESS YOU HAVE NOTHING UNDER THE HOOD!



BLAM

Hey, did you just steal anything?
See, that? Now, if wanted to,
Take that for a vegetable grinder cabbage head!



Thank you for everything.
Slow down, boy... don't recognize me.
Well, if... no
Wisdom, Geronimo. What are these dolls you're collecting?
They were put there by the resistance to increase the city's power grid to protect it from damage.
The mechanic's treatment has been effective. Hmm, the car was afraid
Our mayor... it seems to me to be a little reckless.

What was that noise he always grabbed in the back of the brain? Images that Rugiero watched his collection grow little by little. Soon, he would need a new shelf
And in time and, he thought, collecting his whole family
CRACK
CRACK
Household accidents were happening constantly in the home of the Pandorfos, and they accepted them with Christian resignation, as if it were God's will
The eldest brother while trying to rearrange his entrails, wondered how his favorite shirt could be so sharp
Rugerio at night remained before his collection and dreamed of the day when all of his dear and devout family would share his shelf

A dark archive is thought of a mental map which records and stores all the collected memories
It had a dark interior with stones and notches Rugiero loved his mother so much

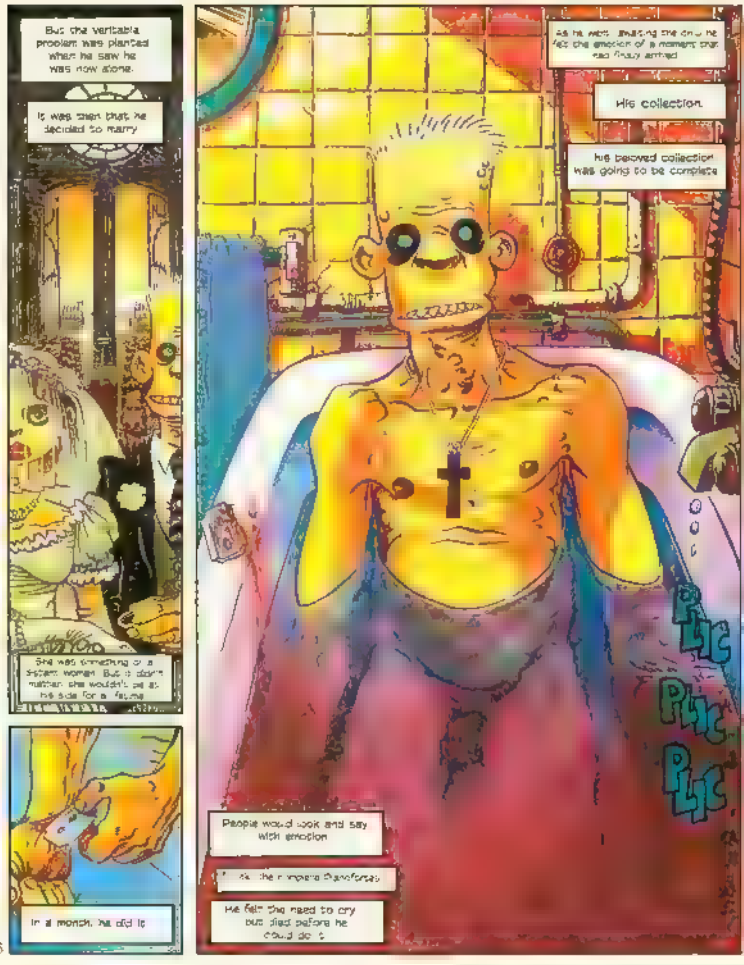
But it worked
Now Mama would be near us with those stones - and here below, in the shelf - thought Rugiero, who secretly had the vague hope that two sins would be necessary for the stones of his mother



But the veritable problem was planted when he saw he was now alone.
It was then that he decided to marry
She was something of a system woman. But it didn't matter. She wouldn't be at his side for a few days
